

Year 8 Autumn 2018 Suggested Reading

REAL-LIFE

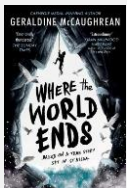

Spoon Gilmore needs something to remember his grand-mother by. A moving story about love and loss.

The untold story from the Second World War. In desperate times, friends Tilly and Rosie act to save London's pets who are doomed to be put down.

Continuing the Levenson family saga. Youngest Laila must find her own place at school and at home as she discovers her own voice in the wider world.

Based on true events. In 1727 a group of boys are left on a remote sea stac to harvest birds for food. But no-one returns to bring them home. Like Lord of the Flies set in Scotland.

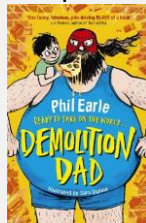

HUMOROUS

Laugh, cry and wonder at this race against time story of a boy travelling to 1984 to prevent an accident and save his dad's life.

Winner of a Laugh Out Loud award. Barry has a list of things he blames his parents for. He hears of a world nearby where children are allowed to choose their parents.

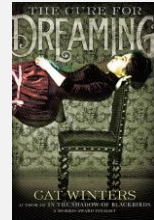

A hilarious, warm-hearted story about friends, family and wrestling. Perfect for fans of David Walliams.

Dan tries to sort out his madcap family, starting with getting his dad back from the arms of the chip shop lady. He comes to realise that real family aren't always the people you share your name with.

ESCAPIST

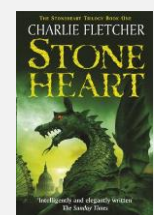

Olivia's father wants to eliminate her rebellious thoughts. But the hypnotist he hires to stamp out her independence ends up giving her a gift: the ability to see people as they really are.

Freddy and Polly are used to helping with their father's experiments so when he puts them in cryonic suspension, they know it will only be for an hour...

Lucky thinks he's an ordinary Human boy but one night he dreams the stars are singing and wakes to find an uncontrollable power rising inside him.

This epic adventure exposes forces long-hidden in the fabric of London. The city's streets will never seem the same again.